Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The citizens of South Dakota have long recognized the special bond between people and pets, and the many benefits animals provide in terms of companionship, loyalty, affection, devotion and health; and,

WHEREAS, The National Pet Week observance on May 5-11, 1985, draws special attention to each individual's responsibility to protect and show kindness to animals, to provide food, shelter, and health care for animals, and to comply with laws and ordinances regarding animals; and,

WHEREAS, The citizens of the State of South Dakota are deeply indebted to Doctors of Veterinary Medicine who, by virtue of their training and skill, devote their practice to the care and treatment of animals, and who join with many individuals, humane societies, and other organizations everyday to educate people of all ages about responsible pet ownership; and,

WHEREAS, The quality of life for people and pets is preserved and improved when a true spirit of kindness toward animals prevails:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 5-11, 1985, as in South Dakota, and I call upon people to take advantage of events and activities planned in conjunction with this observance by the South Dakota Veterinary Medical Association.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota and the footprint of my own dog, Trooper, In Pierre, the Capital City, this Eleventh Day of April, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Five
